

GENCS VALTERS LAW FIRM HELD SEMINAR ON EXPATRIATE TAX PLANNING IN VILNIUS

Tuesday, 15 June 2010

June 10, 2010 was a marked day in the calendars of representatives and members of all the Chambers of Commerce in Lithuania. On that Thursday afternoon we proved that Art, Law and Business are inseparable.

Gencs Valters Law Firm in Vilnius, represented by Head of Lithuanian office Dovilė Aleknienė, held a seminar on Expatriate Tax Planning in Jonas Mekas Visual Arts Center. The seminar was held in association with Swedish Chamber of Commerce in Lithuania and Jonas Mekas visual Arts Center in Vilnius.

Pan-Baltic and internationally recognized Gencs Valters Law Firm continues series of seminars organized in all three Baltic States. Previously held seminars in Riga and Tallinn were a tremendous success and will be held on annually.

This initiative is aimed to gather Lithuanian best known painters and their works, discuss investment possibilities in Art and open debate on legal and business matters between diverse professionals.

This year our special guests – Mr. Are Knoph, Manager of Volvo Lietuva Ltd., Board Member of Swedish Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Darius Zakaitis presenting the challenges building contemporary art gallery in Lithuania and abroad. The Presentation on Expatriate Tax Planning was followed by the unique exposition of SoHo Founder – Mr. Jurgis Mačiūnas.

The photos are available on www.gencs.eu

If you have any questions or require additional information, do not hesitate to contact Dovilė Alekniene at Gencs Valters Law Firm in Vilnius at:

Vilnius Gates, 6th floor, A. Tumeno st. 4, LT-01109, Vilnius, Lithuania
T: +370 52 61 10 00 F: +370 52 61 11 00 E-mail: dovile.alekniene@gencs.eu